

American Culture Week at the University of Bucharest 5-9 November 2018

Monday, November 5, Council Hall (7-13 Pitar Moș St.)

- 14:00-14:15: Opening Ceremony with the participation of Prof. Sorin Costreie (Vice-Rector, University of Bucharest), Scott A. Reese (Cultural Affairs Officer, U.S. Embassy in Romania), and Prof. Octavian Roske (Head of the English Department, University of Bucharest).
- 14:15-15:30: U.S. Political Institutions, guest lecture by Scott A. Reese, Cultural Affairs Officer, U.S. Embassy in Romania.

Tuesday, November 6, Council Hall (7-13 Pitar Moș St.)

- 10:00-11:30: Presentation of the Fulbright Awards Program and independent study opportunities in the United States, with the participation of Corina Dănăila, Romanian Program Coordinator, Romanian-U.S. Fulbright Commission, and Mihaela Doagă, Educational Adviser, Fulbright Educational Advising Center.
- 12:00-14:00: Appalachian-Carpathian Mountain Initiative, guest lecture by Theresa L. Burriss, Director of Appalachian Regional and Rural Studies Center, Radford University, USA.

Thursday, November 8, Council Hall (7-13 Pitar Moș St.)

- 12:00-14:00: “We Fly to Metropolis”: The Fall and Rise of an American City. Film screening and guest lecture by Barbara Nelson, University of Bucharest.

Friday, November 9, American Studies Library (7-13 Pitar Moș St.)

- 12:00-14:00: “Travel Makes the Thinking Mind More American”: Americans Abroad in the 19th Century, guest lecture by Monica Cure, Senior U.S. Fulbright Scholar, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University, Iași.
- 14:00-16:00: New Play Interactive Workshop, theater workshop with Trent Sanders, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, USA/ Fulbright grantee, Babeș-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca.

